CNCC CODE OF CONDUCT – COACHES CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

The environment created by a coach is integral to the overall experience of all players involved within our cricket club. The matters set out below are the minimum expectation of all those who coach within CNCC:

- Remember that many players participate for pleasure and winning is only part of the fun. We do not set out to win at all costs.
- Never ridicule or yell at a player (particularly young players) for making a mistake, failing to succeed or not winning.
- Be reasonable in your demands on players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Operate within the rules and Spirit of Cricket and teach your players to do the same.
- Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience for them and you.
- Avoid overplaying the talented players - all young players need and deserve equal time, attention and opportunities.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players.
- Display control and respect to all those involved in cricket. This includes opponents, coaches, umpires, administrators, parents and spectators. Encourage and ensure your players to do the same.
- Show concern and caution toward sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition.
- Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest cricket coaching practices and principles of growth and development of young people.
- Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
